

Aegarius Times

Sunday Morning Edition

El'len Inskeep and Celosial Bridgewater

Reporting all the news fit to print

FESTIVAL TREATY BROKEN!

The orcish hoard has come into town with tales of a particular citizen-archer who slew one of their own kind without provocation, and in violation of the peace treaty in place. As such, the treaty has been declared void by the Orcs.

Keep on your guard!

The Pillars of Despair - have been successfully banished, thanks to great effort put forward by the town. Keep up the good work!

Fresh Air... with Sister Kethry

*All in the world know the beauty of the beautiful
And in doing this they know what ugliness is.*

Bardic Competition - Congratulations to citizen Rill for her captivating performance at the bardic competition this moon.

Tell me more... rumors around town.

- Dwarven beards do not stop at what you can see. Apparently they constitute most of the bulk under Dwarven armor.
- A bandit hoard was spotted late last night. No one quite knows why or where they came from.

Marketplace: WANTED

- Teacher of great skills. Highly educated blacksmith wanted for private lessons. Speak with the dwarf.
- Skilled fighters, healers, and mages for the Town Guard. Ask one to become one. No parchment inquiries please.

If you have news, requests, or classifieds... let us know!